Property
This 19th-century town house is situated in a central location, within a short walk of local amenities. The ground floor comprises a generously proportioned sitting room, separate dining room and kitchen with access to the rear garden. The first floor offers two double bedrooms and a family bathroom, while the second floor provides a further double bedroom with exposed beams and views over the surrounding area. The enclosed, south-facing rear garden is bordered by a stream, with St Aldhelm's Park beyond, and benefits from side access. The property requires modernisation and offers considerable scope for improvement, making it suitable for purchasers seeking a refurbishment project in a convenient central setting.

General

NB: The property has a history of flooding, please ask the agents for more information.

Malmesbury
Reported to be England's oldest borough, dating from around 880AD, and voted Best Town in the South West in 2026. Malmesbury is a vibrant market town. Home to a stunning 12th century Abbey, a 15th century Market Cross and a charming High Street with unique, independent shops. There are lovely walks along the beautiful River Avon, fabulous cafes, restaurants, pubs and the oldest Hotel in England. It has a Waitrose supermarket, a regular farmers' market, a library, museum, leisure centre with pool, two primary schools and a 'High Performing Academy' secondary school. It is also home to the UK headquarters of Dyson. Nearby are the popular attractions of Westonbirt Arboretum and the Cotswold Water Park. The City of Bath is 23 miles to the south-west and J17 of the M4, 5 miles south, provides access to the area's major employment centres and there are trains to Paddington in just over an hour from Chippenham and Kemble. The nearest airport is at Bristol and London Heathrow is within easy reach along the M4.
