GROUND FLOOR

1ST FLOOR

Charming Georgian House with Exceptional Potential. Located on Queenborough High Street, this substantial Georgian-style terraced home offers generous space, period character and excellent scope for improvement. The property features four double bedrooms, including an exceptionally large master, plus a spacious family bathroom with double walk-in shower, freestanding bath and dual sinks.

The ground floor provides three versatile reception rooms, ideal for family living, entertaining or home working. At its centre is a large open-plan lounge with a characterful log burner, creating a warm focal point. Original Georgian windows, decorative coving and period ceiling details remain throughout, offering a strong foundation for sympathetic restoration.

Some finishing work is required, giving the new owner the chance to personalise and enhance the home. With its impressive proportions, original features and huge potential, this is an exciting opportunity to create a truly individual and striking period property.
