

Connells

Haig Avenue
Rochester

Property Description

Connells are delighted to bring to market this two bedroom, detached bungalow on the popular Haig Avenue.

This home will be coming to market offering a good sized living space set towards the front of the bungalow, and open planing kitchen/breakfast area leading into the large conservatory. There are also two large double bedrooms, a family bathroom and a garage.

Haig Avenue is conveniently positioned for Rochester's historic High Street, offering an array of shops, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities. Rochester and Chatham railway stations provide connections into London, while the nearby motorway network offers easy access to the M2 and wider Kent coastline. Well-regarded local schools are also within easy reach, making this an attractive proposition for a range of buyers.
