Hartham Road, TW7

The ground floor comprises a welcoming entrance leading to an impressive front reception room boasting high ceilings and bay-fronted window. There is a well appointed kitchen/dining room in the centre of the house that leads to a rear extended lean to opening onto a substantial private garden. Upstairs, you will find three well proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. The loft offers considerable scope for extension (STPP), providing the opportunity to create additional living space such as a principal bedroom suite.
