5 Bedroom House - Semi-Detached located in London

 MUST VIEW TO APPRECIATE  This spacious five bedroom 1930's Cox built semi-detached lovely home is arranged over three floors in a sought after area of Southgate.

The property comprises a welcoming entrance porch, a bright and generous reception room, and a modern open-plan kitchen/dining room at the rear, creating a superb family living space.

The first floor offers three well proportioned bedrooms, including two doubles, alongside a contemporary family bathroom and separate guest toilet. The second floor features a loft conversion providing two further bedrooms and a modern shower room.

Externally, the property benefits from a substantial private rear garden and a garage and side paved section, both of which can be used for parking.

Conveniently located close to Southgate's range of shops, cafés and local amenities, the property is also within easy reach of several well regarded schools. Arnos Grove and Southgate Underground Stations (Piccadilly Line) provide direct access into Central London, while nearby Arnos Park, Grovelands Park and Broomfield Park offer plenty of green open space and recreational facilities.
