The Property

Birchlea is a four-bedroom detached house that has remained in the same family since it was built and is now offered for the first time to a new generation of owners. Tucked away at the end of a shared driveway serving just three neighbouring properties, it enjoys a quietly secluded position in one of Newtown's most popular residential areas, with the town centre, schools and everyday amenities all within easy reach.

The front door opens into a welcoming entrance hall, where a handsome open-tread staircase rises to the first floor and doors lead off to the principal ground floor rooms. To one side is the sitting room, a well-proportioned space with a fireplace as its focal point and windows overlooking the front garden. Opposite, the kitchen is generously sized and fitted with units along two walls, together with a double oven and hob. A window frames views of the garden, while an opening leads directly into the dining room.

Bright and airy, the dining room enjoys windows on two sides and a pleasant outlook across the garden, creating a natural setting for family mealtimes and entertaining alike. A separate utility room provides additional storage and practical workspace, while a ground floor shower room with WC completes the accommodation at this level.

Upstairs, the landing gives access to four bedrooms. Bedroom one is a particularly spacious double room with a wide front-facing window, while bedroom two is similarly generous in size and enjoys a rear aspect. Bedrooms three and four are comfortable single rooms, one of which benefits from fitted storage. The family bathroom is fitted with a bath, pedestal wash hand basin and WC.

Outside, Birchlea truly comes into its own. The gardens wrap around the property on multiple sides, featuring a good-sized lawn, established borders, a greenhouse and a paved seating area – a sheltered and private space that has clearly been well cared for over the years. To the front and side, the driveway provides ample off-road parking, while the integral garage offers further storage or potential workshop space.

Now ready for its next chapter, Birchlea offers buyers the chance to update and personalise a well-loved family home in a popular residential setting. With generous accommodation, wrap-around gardens, ample parking and a tucked-away position at the end of a shared driveway, the property provides a strong foundation for improvement. Whether modernised gradually over time or reimagined to suit contemporary family life, Birchlea offers plenty of scope for new owners to make it their own.

The Location

Newtown (Y Drenewydd) is the largest town in Powys, lying in the heart of Mid Wales and surrounded by hills and open countryside.

As a well-established market town, Newtown offers a wide range of services, schools and leisure facilities, making it a practical and popular choice for everyday living. The town has a strong educational offering, including a number of primary schools and Newtown High School and Sixth Form, which is well regarded locally. Post-16 and vocational education is available at Coleg Powys, providing further learning opportunities close to home.

Day-to-day needs are well served, with a mix of independent shops, supermarkets, cafés, restaurants and public houses, alongside medical facilities and other essential services. Cultural and leisure amenities include Theatr Hafren, Oriel Davies Gallery and the Robert Owen Museum, contributing to an active and well-supported town centre.

For those who enjoy sport and outdoor activity, the surrounding countryside offers excellent walking and cycling routes, while the town itself is home to a wide range of sports clubs, gyms and recreational facilities. Newtown AFC is based at Latham Park, and there are established clubs for rugby, cricket, tennis and other sports.

Newtown is well connected, with a mainline railway station providing regular services along the Cambrian Line, as well as local bus routes and coach services, making it a practical base for commuting and wider travel.
