"The garden really sold us on this house. It feels so private and serene and we had a lot of fun planting the vegetable patches and harvesting our own veggies. The magnolia tree is also so pretty in the spring. Inside, we fell in love with the open kitchen and dining room and the pretty view into the garden. We also set up a high top table in the conservatory which is so lovely to sit in and look at the garden. We had never had a log burner before and we now want one in our next house!"
