Having brought up a family and run a business from The Grange, we couldn't sum up just a single moment. We have thoroughly enjoyed living here. We have been so blessed with the easy access to schools and the proximity to the mainline train station, airport and motorway, which has made a lot of things so much easier with the business and family. The house is so lovely and cool in the hot summers with the flagstone floors, and the wood burners make it very cozy and warm during the winter months.'
