ABOUT THE PROPERTY

The classic Georgian architectural features of the exterior are reflected in subtle ways whilst internal there is a modern twist. The open plan living kitchen has views over the River Thames along with the principle bedroom having access to the en suite. There is a further two double bedrooms and two bathrooms and a private terrace.

The riverside location of these apartments, looking out towards Kew Gardens and Kew Village itself, is unique in so many ways and benefits from being directly opposite from Kew Bridge railway station which is perfect for a quick commute to London Waterloo or socialising and shopping in the West End.
