Seawall, Dymchurch

Asking Price £680,000

This elegant early 1900s semi-detached residence is a truly exceptional coastal home, combining wealth of period features, generous proportions, and an enviable beachfront setting with stunning sea views and direct access to the shoreline.

The large bay fronted reception room offers excellent natural light and providing ideal spaces for entertaining or relaxing with family. Large windows frame delightful views towards the sea, creating a wonderful sense of connection with the surrounding coastal landscape. The well-proportioned kitchen/dining is complemented by practical ancillary space and provides access to the beautifully maintained gardens.

The property offers five generous bedrooms, arranged over the upper floors, providing ample accommodation for growing families or visiting guests. Three bathrooms serve the home, ensuring comfort and convenience for modern living.

A particular highlight of this unique property is its breathtaking sea views and direct access to the beach via a private bridge, allowing residents to step directly from the grounds onto the shoreline. The beautifully landscaped gardens provide a tranquil setting for outdoor entertaining, al fresco dining, or simply enjoying the coastal surroundings.

Approached via a private driveway providing off-road parking for up to five vehicles, the property immediately impresses with its handsome façade and elevated position overlooking the coast. Internally, the home offers spacious and versatile accommodation extending across three floors, perfectly suited to modern family living whilst retaining a wealth of character and original features.

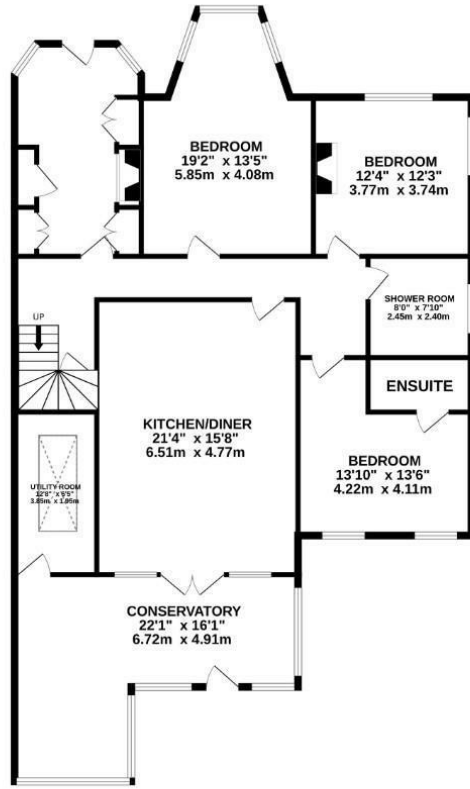

Rarely available and occupying one of the area's most desirable beachfront positions, this distinguished period home offers a unique opportunity to acquire a substantial family residence with character, space, and uninterrupted access to the coast.
