Location

Immersed in the Yorkshire Dales countryside it may be, isolated it is not. Whilst embracing a rural setting with fabulous 360 degree views, hop in the car and there is a good choice of places to eat out, local shops and amenities to be found in Settle, Ingleton and Kirkby Lonsdale with the larger towns of Skipton and Harrogate and city of Leeds providing the full range. Skipton and Leeds are both easy to reach by road, or by rail with a handy station at Giggleswick just over 3 miles away.

Settle is incredibly picturesque and unspoilt; it has a thriving community and is also popular with holiday makers. Much of the town is a Conservation Area, with many 17th and 18th-century buildings including over 70 Listed Buildings. The town offers a thriving range of independent shops, cafes, restaurants and traditional pubs. There are all the amenities essential to a busy community; health centre, dentists, vets, schools, swimming pool, library, Post Office, professional services, petrol stations and a branch of Booths supermarket.

This is a fabulous location for exploring the great outdoors, whether on foot, cycle or horseback, there is a network of scenic footpaths and bridleways to explore across the distinctive limestone landscape.

Opportunities are further expanded by the proximity of the Lake District National Park (in just under 35 miles you can be standing on the shores of Lake Windermere), the protected National Landscape of the Forest of Bowland and combined coastal Arnside and Silverdale as well as the green and gently undulating Lune Valley.

Setting the scene

An impressive Edwardian detached residence commanding far-reaching panoramic views in all directions, this exceptional house has been sympathetically remodelled and extensively renovated to combine elegant period character with the comforts and conveniences demanded for modern living. Retaining a wealth of original architectural features, the property now offers beautifully appointed contemporary fittings, creating a home of both timeless charm and practical sophistication.

The comprehensive renovation work in 2025/6 included new wiring, plumbing and a central heating system. Structurally, the kitchen and dining room were opened and a multifuel stove installed. All windows were replaced with PVC along with new external and internal doors. Kitchen and sanitaryware fittings have been replaced and there are new floor coverings and lighting with redecoration throughout. Externally, a new private drainage system was installed, elevations were rendered and a roller shutter door added to the garage. Security measures have also been incorporated; external CCTV and an alarm.

Step inside

Internally, the generous proportions are immediately apparent, with high ceilings and tall windows the accommodation is flooded with natural light throughout. An entrance vestibule with original tiled flooring leads through a stunning stained-glass inner door with matching side panels into a particularly impressive wide reception hall, where the original tiled floor continues and sets the tone for the character and quality found throughout the house.

There are three elegant reception rooms, each offering its own distinct atmosphere. The beautifully proportioned sitting room features a striking square bay window and a dramatic oxblood and black marble feature mantelpiece, creating a refined focal point. The garden room enjoys direct access outside, while the dining room, complete with multi-fuel stove and square bay window, has been opened into the kitchen to create a wonderfully sociable and family-friendly living space that's ideal for entertaining.

The contemporary kitchen is stylishly fitted with sleek cabinetry and integrated appliances, perfectly balancing practicality with modern design. Completing the ground floor accommodation are a well-appointed shower room and rear hall, while stone steps descend to a useful cellar room retaining original stone benches.

A staircase rises to the impressive first-floor landing, a substantial circulation space that is a room in its own right. The property offers five bedrooms comprising four generous double bedrooms and a particularly spacious single room. The principal bedroom benefits from a luxurious en-suite shower room, while the remaining bedrooms are served by a beautifully appointed family bathroom. The bathroom and both shower rooms have all been individually designed with streamlined contemporary fittings and high-quality finishes, each adding a touch of luxury to your day.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a distinguished Edwardian home of considerable character and presence, thoughtfully updated to provide exceptional family accommodation in a truly spectacular setting. For those seeking the charm of a period home, that's up to date in appointment and aesthetic, this is a turn key solution.

Enhancing the versatility of the outdoor space is a charming row of red brick and slate-built outhouses, ideal for use as workshops, hobby rooms or further practical storage.

The gardens are informally landscaped with lawns, mature trees and established planting creating a private setting. Bordering open fields, the grounds enjoy delightful open aspects and far-reaching views, perfectly complementing the elevated position of the house.

To the front, the formal fore-garden is enclosed by a traditional stone wall with a central pedestrian gate opening onto a pathway leading to the front door, providing an elegant approach befitting this distinguished Edwardian home.
