 NO UPWARD CHAIN  Sherwood House is an imposing Victorian family home with the recent addition of a high quality architect designed, Shou Sugi Ban charred timber extension which houses a contemporary style kitchen diner, utility room and a wet room. The property is well positioned at the end of a quiet private road populated by individual properties with a rural feel, yet only a short walk from the town centre and excellent local amenities. For those wishing to commute, Newark Northgate railway station is also within walking distance (approx 20 minutes) and offers high speed train services connecting to London King's Cross station in around 75 minutes. The living accommodation is beautifully presented and has been sympathetically modernised in keeping with the period of this home.

The accommodation comprises as follows: centre opening wood panelled doors with a fine fanlight above giving access to an entrance porch leading through to the grand reception hallway which has the original floor tiles and staircase rising to the first floor. The front reception room has a walk-in bay window, an open fireplace with period surround and is currently used as the music room. The elegant family living room has a wood burning stove and a walk-in bay window overlooking the rear garden. The study offers an ideal space for home working or alternatively could be used as a fourth bedroom.

An 22' inner hallway has a gallery feel and offers a natural flow through to the extension which houses the superb kitchen diner fitted with a comprehensive range of kitchen units and appliances including an island unit with breakfast bar. Additionally, there is ample space for a large dining table and comfortable seating. Floor to ceiling windows with flood to ceiling sliding doors flood the room with natural light and connect to an elevated patio terrace and secluded garden. Also forming part of the extension is the useful utility room which is fitted with a comprehensive range of base units and drawers, and has a side entrance door leading to the driveway.

On the first floor there is a spacious landing leading to three impressive family sized bedrooms and a well appointed family bathroom.

Outside there is a spacious gravelled driveway to the frontage offering ample off road parking for several vehicles. To the rear the secluded gardens have a peaceful rural feel being laid out with a lawned area planted with a variety of trees and shrubs with hedgerows to the boundaries. There is a superb elevated paved patio terrace which connects to the living and dining kitchen extension via patio doors.

This property would suit those seeking a period family home with flexible living accommodation close to the town centre and main line railway station offering fast trains to London.

The Avenue is a highly regarded road with a countryside feel balanced with the convenience of town centre amenities within 1 mile. Newark Northgate railway station is only a short drive and has fast trains connecting to London King's Cross with journey times of approximately 75 minutes. Additionally, Newark Castle has trains connecting to Nottingham and Lincoln. There are nearby access points for the A1 and A46 dual carriageways. Shopping facilities in Newark include a recently opened M&S food hall and there are also several supermarkets including Waitrose, Morrisons, Asda and Aldi.
