ABOUT THE HOME

A four double bedroom, two bathroom Victorian terrace house that has been extended and modernised, while retaining much of its original period charm. This property is being sold with no onward chain. The property extends to over 1,400 sq ft internally. The ground floor comprises a generous reception room with a period fireplace, and double glazed sash windows. There is also a dining room, with alcove storage, leading through to the open plan extended kitchen diner, which is complete with bi-folding doors opening onto the sunny rear garden, which benefits from a sunken seating area. Returning inside, the first floor offers two spacious double bedrooms and a larger than average four piece family bathroom. The extended loft provides a further two spacious double bedrooms, with the larger bedroom benefiting from an en suite bathroom.

Conveniently located on the sought after, quiet and well positioned Okeburn Road in the heart of Tooting. This road is in close proximity of Northern Line tube station. This prime location offers sought after Ofsted outstanding schools, open green spaces of Tooting Common, and great transport links.
