Situated on a popular tree lined road under 2 miles to the west of Reading Town Centre and fortunately offered with the advantage of no 'onward chain', this attractive and characterful mid-terrace house is located within the desirable 'Wilson Primary' school catchment and also conveniently within a short walk of a range of amenities including Prospect Park, Kensington Recreation Ground as well, as a wealth of supermarkets, shops, pubs, restaurants, cafes, gyms and Library. The No.17 - 24 hour bus service is within 500 yards and Reading West Train Station (Reading, Paddington, Newbury, Basingstoke, Theale) is approximately 10 minutes walk and Reading Town Centre with mainline Train Station is approximately a 25 minutes level walk.

A low level wall to the front of the property has a timber gate opening to a paved frontage with a recessed open covered porch leading to the front door. Opening to the entrance hall, stairs rise to the first floor and doors lead to a small yet handy front aspect W.C, the kitchen, and two versatile separate reception rooms. These comprise of living room with front aspect box bay window and feature open fireplace, and a dining room also with feature fireplace and rear aspect window looking to the garden. The rear aspect kitchen has a range of fitted units and a courtesy door opening to the rear garden. On the first floor, a spacious landing gives access to 3 'well proportioned' bedrooms and a separate rear aspect bathroom with white suite including shower over bath with glazed screen. A wall mounted gas fired combi-boiler (not tested) provides central heating to radiators and domestic hot water.

Outside, the sizable rear garden is another notable feature of this desirable home. Measuring approximately 85' (26m) in length, with a predominantly westerly aspect, and useful gated pedestrian rear access. A covered open 'lean to' spans the rear of the property, and adjoins the garden which is laid mainly to lawn with shrubs, established tree and path leading to garden shed.
