The Main Text

St. Nicholas Road is a highly desirable address, and this substantial 5-bedroom terraced property offers the perfect blend of character, comfort, and flexibility. Boasting beautiful period features, generous proportions, and a well-kept garden with rear access and additional storage, it is ideally suited for modern family living. Previously arranged as two separate flats, the property’s layout and size make it an excellent choice for multi-generational households or those seeking versatile living arrangements.

Stepping inside, you are greeted by a striking Victorian-tiled entrance hall, setting the scene for the charm and elegance that flows throughout.

The first reception room, positioned at the front of the home, is spacious and light-filled, featuring a stunning bay window and an attractive fireplace, a perfect spot for relaxing or hosting guests. The second reception room is equally well-proportioned and benefits from patio doors opening directly to the garden, creating a natural flow between indoor and outdoor living.

At the heart of the home lies a large open-plan kitchen/diner, finished with white cabinetry, wooden worktops, and plentiful workspace. This sociable area comfortably accommodates a dining table, making it ideal for family meals and entertaining. From here, you can step out to the garden or access a practical utility room with a downstairs WC.

The first floor hosts three generous bedrooms, including a front-facing room with another charming bay window, alongside a family bathroom complete with bath and overhead shower.

The second floor offers two additional double bedrooms plus a versatile extra room, perfect for a study, dressing room, or extra storage. There is also attic space for additional storage.

The rear garden is a good size, featuring a garage and rear access, providing both convenience and potential for outdoor enjoyment.
