Located in a popular residential area of Mold, close to well-regarded schools including Mold Alun and Maes Garmon, this well-presented home offers spacious living, practical layout, and a lovely connection to the outdoors.

The property is approached via a private driveway providing parking for multiple vehicles, with a front garden and an attached single garage to the side. A covered entrance porch creates a sheltered and welcoming approach, ideal for those wet Welsh days.

Inside, the home feels bright and welcoming. The living room enjoys a large front-facing window that fills the space with natural light and flows seamlessly into the open dining area. Sliding patio doors open onto the garden, making this a perfect space for family life and entertaining. The kitchen is well laid out with ample storage, built-in appliances, and a rear door offering easy access to the garden.

Upstairs, the home offers three well-proportioned bedrooms. The main bedroom benefits from its own en suite shower room, while the second double bedroom enjoys peaceful views over the rear garden and woodland beyond. A further single bedroom provides flexibility as a child's room, home office, or guest space. The family bathroom completes the accommodation.

Outside, the wraparound garden combines paved and slated areas with steps leading up to the rear, creating a versatile outdoor space for relaxing, entertaining, or family use. The single garage provides additional storage and houses the boiler. The property could be easily extended, subject to the required planning permission, in to a four bed property with additional accommodation on the ground floor.

With its convenient location, generous parking, and proximity to schools, green space, and Mold town centre, this home is ideal for families and buyers seeking comfort, space, and a well-connected lifestyle.

Location

Living Room

Located in a popular and convenient residential area of Mold, this property enjoys an excellent position close to a range of local amenities and well-regarded schools, including Mold Alun and Maes Garmon. The property is ideally placed for access to Mold town centre, offering a variety of shops, cafés, restaurants, and leisure facilities. Surrounded by green spaces and woodland walks, the area provides a pleasant balance of town living and outdoor lifestyle, while also benefiting from good transport links to surrounding towns and road networks, making it ideal for families and commuters alike.

External

The exterior of the property is a traditional red brick semi-detached house with white window frames and a pitched roof. It features a driveway offering ample parking space, a front lawn, and a garage to the side. The setting includes neighbouring homes and is situated in a peaceful residential area with trees bordering the plot.

Cloakroom

A compact, ground-floor cloakroom featuring a white toilet and pedestal sink set against light walls. A small window above the radiator allows natural light to filter in, while the flooring is finished in a practical wood-effect style. This room offers essential convenience for guests and residents alike.

Kitchen

A spacious living room featuring large window space that brightens the area naturally. The room is carpeted in a soft grey tone, providing a cosy atmosphere. It benefits from neutral walls and ceiling, creating a versatile space to personalise. The room flows seamlessly into a dining area, offering an open feel and convenient access to the kitchen. A white door leads to other parts of the home, and a staircase with carpeted steps rises towards the upper floor.

Dining Room

The dining area extends naturally from the living room, featuring carpeted flooring and neutral walls. It benefits from sliding glass doors that lead directly into the rear garden, allowing plenty of natural light and easy outdoor access. This space is ideal for family meals or entertaining, with sufficient room for a dining table and chairs.

Bedroom 1

A bright bedroom with neutral decor and plush grey carpet. It features a large window that brings in plenty of natural light and a radiator positioned beneath. The room provides ample space for a bed, storage furniture, and personal touches, making it a restful retreat.

En Suite

Fitted with a white toilet, sink, and shower with silver fittings, finished with patterned tile-effect flooring for a modern feel.
