No Forward Chain

Private entrance, beautiful open views, peaceful residential setting, viewing highly recommended. Offered to the market with no forward chain, this beautifully presented two-bedroom first floor flat benefits from its own private entrance and occupies a truly peaceful position, overlooking an attractive communal green with mature trees. The stunning open views from the living room and principal bedroom are a rare feature, creating a tranquil setting that is hard to find and perfect for those looking for a quieter way of life. Beautifully maintained throughout with neutral décor, the property offers bright, spacious and welcoming accommodation ready to move straight into. Internally, the home comprises a private entrance, spacious landing, generous living room with feature gas fire, fitted kitchen with a wifi connected combi boiler, two well-proportioned bedrooms, bathroom and a useful internal storage cupboard with small radiator. Externally, there is an additional outside storage cupboard, one allocated carport parking space. There is a beautifully maintained communal green space directly opposite the front of the flat. Ideally positioned for everyday convenience, the property is within easy reach of local shops, restaurants, a pharmacy, schools, bus routes and York rail station as well as the ever-popular Acomb Front Street.

Properties in such a tranquil setting, with beautiful green views and no forward chain, rarely stay on the market for long. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate everything this lovely home has to offer.
