A bright and spacious top floor split-level maisonette occupying the second and third floors of a Victorian building in Kensington, presented in good condition with 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms and a private south west terrace, there is also excellent potential to extend into the loft and convert it to create a fourth en-suite bedroom, subject to planning..

This duplex apartment benefits of a bright and spacious reception room with original fireplace, high ceilings and period features, a large eat-in kitchen including integrated appliances, a separate toilet and a study area opening to the terrace. The top floor boasts three double bedrooms, along with two bathrooms, one of which is an en-suite. Ascending the staircase, you'll reach the loft, a versatile space that provides ample storage and the potential to be easily converted into a fourth bedroom.

Ideally positioned in Kensington between Gloucester Road and Earls Court, this location offers easy access to amenities, restaurants, and excellent transportation via the District and Piccadilly lines.

Energy Efficiency Rating: D
