Introduction

A most interesting parcel of land, with gated road frontage, extending to some 0.30 acres (0.12 ha) formerly part of the adjacent property, Lodge Paddocks, comprising a roughly rectangular block of grassland with a range of timber framed and clad former stables (75' x 16'), with two mature apple trees together with a mature Walnut and Plum tree on the plot and superb views across the adjacent rural landscape. The land and buildings give a prospective purchaser great scope to reconfigure, adapt or restore, for not only equine but other purposes (STPP if required). All located with easy access to Solihull town centre (4 miles), Birmingham city centre (8 miles), with the M42 motorway (J3 & J4).

For the equestrian enthusiast, the immediate area is a myriad of country lanes, with Solihull Riding Club and Swallowfield Equestrian Centre being within easy driving distance.

Small, handy parcels of land such as this, especially those with buildings, rarely come onto the open market so close to Birmingham & Solihull, and therefore the auctioneers commend early inspection to appreciate all this property has to offer.
