Sheffield, S6 5GE

Description

A superbly presented detached property that offers its owners a huge degree of privacy due to its excellent position at the end of Rivelin Park Road. With access to the picturesque woodland walks that lead along the valley and not far from excellent amenities in Stannington, Malin Bridge and Crookes. The property has a modern finish throughout its 1404 square feet of accommodation and features an external, home office/hobby room at the top of the tiered garden. The kitchen is large and beautifully appointed and the generous proportions continue through to the large living room. Externally there is gated off road parking for several vehicles, leading to a double garage which offers the potential for conversion into additional accommodation if required (subject to regs). The picturesque Rivelin Valley provides lovely walks along the river and valley floor and is the perfect backdrop to this elegant home.
