About this property

A well-presented detached five bedroom family home situated in a sought after modern development in the village of Llanfoist on the outskirts of Abergavenny. It is conveniently located for ease of access to a wealth of local amenities including the local primary school, Waitrose Supermarket and Abergavenny town centre. The property affords exceptionally generous accommodation throughout with the ground floor comprising an entrance hall which leads to an impressive 21' lounge with bay window and French doors to the garden, and a separate dining room/sitting room. Overlooking the garden to the rear is the stylish kitchen/diner with skylights for additional natural light, extensive storage and worktop space, and a number of integrated appliances. In addition, the ground floor benefits from a separate utility room with separate entrance, and a guest WC. On the first floor there are three double bedrooms, including a superb master bedroom with dressing area and en-suite shower room, and a three piece family bathroom. On the second floor, the light and airy landing leads to two further double bedrooms and a shower room. The property is set back behind an attractive, low maintenance frontage of shrubs and beds with double gates to the side opening onto a driveway providing parking for several cars, and leading to the detached double garage. One half of the garage has been converted into a home work space/studio with light and power with side access from the garden. The rear garden comprises patio seating area accessed from the living room covered by a pergola, with the patio extending in an L shape across the side and rear. There is also an area of lawn framed with well stocked flower beds and shrubs, with the addition of a timber storage shed.

About the location

A popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Bloreng and the Sugar Loaf mountains, Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly market, a high street comprising of recognised chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny, is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.

Directions

Leave Abergavenny on the Merthyr Road crossing the River Usk, take the first left at the roundabout then left at the traffic lights into Cooper's Way and take the first right into Steele Crescent. What3Words: ///tilting.processes.cork
