Rarely available three double bedroom end terrace family home. The property is offered in good decorative order and benefits from a sizable double story side extension, which has elevated the property to three double bedrooms, a large four piece first floor family bathroom and on the ground floor a spacious hallway, thru lounge and a exceptional size open plan kitchen/diner. To the rear the property has a private rear garden and to the front off road parking, plus to the side there is a private yard which forms part of the property. Set within the catchments of some highly regarded local schools and with excellent access to a range of local shops and transport links a viewing is recommended to appreciate the size of accommodation on offer.
