

14 Kingsholm Road, Gloucester, GL1 3AU

Asking Price £275,000

This substantial three-bedroom period property is ideally located within close proximity to Gloucester Rugby Club, combining character, space, and convenience in a highly desirable setting.

Offered to the market chain free, the property is currently arranged and occupied as a four-way HMO, generating a strong rental income and presenting a fantastic turnkey investment opportunity. The existing layout provides generous and flexible accommodation, including well-proportioned bedrooms, communal living space, and practical kitchen and bathroom facilities.

Importantly, while the property is currently used as an HMO, it would also make a superb family home. With its spacious rooms, period charm, and adaptable layout, there is excellent scope to reconfigure and create a comfortable and stylish residence tailored to modern family living.

Whether you are an investor seeking immediate returns or a buyer looking for a characterful home with potential, this property offers a rare and versatile opportunity. Early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate all it has to offer.
