Welcome to this well-presented three bedroom home on the quiet Bloom Close in Ravenstone. The property offers comfortable, modern accommodation with a practical layout throughout.

Inside, the bright living spaces seamlessly provide for everyday use and entertaining.

Upstairs are three well-proportioned bedrooms. Two bathrooms serve the home, adding convenience and flexibility.

Positioned within a cul-de-sac, the property enjoys a peaceful setting with easy access to local amenities, schools and nearby green spaces.

General Description:

Positioned within a peaceful and secluded cul-de-sac, screened by a mature tree line, this impressive detached home offers spacious and versatile accommodation ideal for long-term family living. Originally built as a four bedroom property and now arranged as three generous double bedrooms, the layout provides both flexibility and a wonderful sense of space throughout.

The property is approached via a substantial driveway providing ample off-road parking and access to the remaining front section of the original garage, ideal for storage. An attractive lawned frontage with established planting enhances the home's kerb appeal, while gated side access leads through to the rear garden.

Accommodation:

Inside, a welcoming entrance hall leads to the heart of the home. The lounge is bright and inviting, benefitting from a dual-aspect outlook and flowing seamlessly into the dining area to create an excellent open-plan living and entertaining space. From here, doors open into a spacious conservatory, offering a relaxing additional reception area with pleasant views across the garden and direct access onto the patio. The kitchen has been beautifully redecorated by the current owners and sits to the rear, providing ample workspace and storage, complemented by a separate utility room and ground-floor WC, adding everyday practicality.

Upstairs, the sense of space continues with three well-proportioned double bedrooms arranged around a central landing. The principal bedroom enjoys an attractive outlook to the front, while the remaining bedrooms offer flexibility for family life, guest accommodation or working from home. The third bedroom was originally two rooms and could easily be reconfigured back to a four-bedroom layout if desired. A recently updated family bathroom completes the first floor.

Gardens and Grounds:

The rear garden is impeccably arranged and thoughtfully maintained, featuring a generous lawn, well-stocked borders, a vegetable plot and a spacious patio area ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining. Private and well established, it provides a peaceful extension of the living space during the warmer months.
