ABOUT THE PROPERTY

A beautifully presented two bedroom conversion flat on the entire ground floor of an Edwardian house. This impressive flat has original features throughout, with high decorative ceilings, large windows with stained glass panels, and refurbished original timber floors. The spacious kitchen was recently installed, and includes a large range, Belfast sink, and separate wine fridge. The property has a substantial private rear garden, which you can step out into through the original double doors in both the reception and kitchen.

The property is located in the desirable Streatham Lodge conservation area, on a quiet road with ample parking. It is close to Streatham Common and Norwood Grove, and
