The flat has been meticulously refurbished to a high standard, blending contemporary design with classic period charm, including impressive ceiling heights and large, south facing sash windows that flood the space with natural light.

The open plan kitchen and reception room is thoughtfully arranged to accommodate both relaxed seating and dining. The kitchen is sleek and refined, fitted with high quality Smeg appliances and carefully considered storage, creating a space that feels both practical and stylish.

Positioned quietly to the rear of the property, the bedroom offers excellent built in storage and a calm, restful outlook. A smartly designed bathroom sits alongside, complemented by a generous utility cupboard with plumbing in place for a washing machine.

Bassett Road is one of W10's most attractive streets, wide and tree lined, characterised by handsome detached and semi detached Victorian villas. The independent shops, cafés and restaurants of Golborne Road and Portobello Road are close at hand, with Ladbroke Grove Underground station providing excellent transport links across London.
