Situation:

The property is situated at the heart of Chagford, which offers a great variety of independent shops, pubs, and eateries as well as a great selection of community clubs and activities. There is also an open air swimming pool operating during the summer months. Bovey Castle, renowned for its excellent facilities and Golf Course, is only 5 miles distant.

The A30 dual carriageway is 5.5 miles to the north, giving access to the beaches of Cornwall in the west and the Cathedral City of Exeter in the east with a wide variety of amenities and providing access to the M5, mainline railway and international airport. Additionally, Okehampton Railway Station with regular services into Exeter is only 7 miles distant.

Description:

36 Mill Street is a fine example of a 19th Century period home. The light and airy accommodation is very well presented throughout and boasts exceptional proportions, with high ceilings and deep window reveals. The layout offers great flexibility, and open views over gardens and to the distant hills can be enjoyed from the first and second floors. The property has been successfully let for a time, and could certainly continue to provide an income, although additionally lends itself perfectly to the needs of a growing family.

Accommodation:

The property is very well positioned near to the Town Centre, with access gained through a period front door which opens into a spacious hallway with stairs rising to the first floor. There is a small area adjacent to the road which provides an ideal space for container planting.

On the ground floor, the hallway opens into a spacious sitting room with a feature cast iron fireplace. At the rear, there is a large Kitchen/Breakfast Room which in turn leads to the rear courtyard garden via an enclosed porch.

On the first floor, the light and airy landing provides access into two double bedrooms, one of which shares use of the family bathroom. The larger bedroom at the front is dual aspect and boasts a feature fireplace.

On the second floor, there are two further double bedrooms, one with an en-suite. One of these rooms, which is dual aspect, is presently used as a spacious and practical home office.

Outside

As noted, the front of the property incorporates an area ideal for container planting. At the rear, there is a charming, fully enclosed courtyard garden. There are numerous raised beds and a useful garden store room.
