Overall Description

This is an end-of-terraced bungalow in a quiet cul-de-sac location, on the edge of the popular seaside town of Clacton-on-Sea. The property has two bedrooms, each with fitted wardrobe units, and a nicely appointed shower room, designed as a wet room. There is also an entrance hall, sitting room, lovely large conservatory overlooking the garden and a galley kitchen. The property has gas central-heating, double glazed windows and is being sold with no onward chain. Outside there is a good-sized front garden, gravelled for easy maintenance, and a private driveway leading to the garage. A side gate leads into the back garden which has two sunny patios, well-stocked flowerbeds and is surprisingly private. If you are looking for a spacious bungalow in a nice quiet location, then look no further.

Location

This bungalow sits on the popular Cann Hall Development towards the edge of Clacton-on-Sea, a bustling coastal community that is famous for its pier and sandy beaches. It has excellent transport links, with the A120 leading to the A12 a short drive away and direct train links to London Liverpool Street (in approx. 1.5 hours). There are also good bus services nearby with a bus stop just up the road on Constable Avenue. There are plenty of leisure facilities locally including the Princes Theatre, Curve Wake Park, and improved seafront areas, alongside local shopping, which is a mix of national chains and independent boutiques plus convenience stores and supermarkets. There is also a retail park on the edge of town. There are plenty of good schools at all levels in the area including Cann Hall Primary School, a short walk away. Clacton has excellent other amenities with multiple GP practices and dentists, as well as the Clacton Leisure Centre with its gym and a 25m swimming pool. All in all, it is a very pleasant place to live.
