About The Property

Character Barn Conversion with 3.9 Acres & Substantial Agricultural Building Near Newcastle Emlyn

Looking for a character barn conversion with land, useful outbuildings and plenty of space to enjoy the countryside?

Set down a private track just outside Newcastle Emlyn, this beautifully converted stone barn sits within approximately 3.9 acres and includes a substantial agricultural shed, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a rural lifestyle with versatility.

Tucked away at the end of a track just a short drive from Newcastle Emlyn, this attractive stone barn conversion combines traditional character with modern comforts, all set within approximately 3.9 acres of gardens and pasture. Alongside the house is a substantial agricultural building, providing excellent storage or workspace and opening up opportunities for those with livestock, machinery, hobbies or smallholding ambitions.

Built from traditional stone and finished with exposed beams, original stone walls and timber flooring, the property has retained plenty of its original charm while creating a practical home for modern living.

The main entrance opens into an impressive open-plan living space where the lounge, dining area and kitchen flow together naturally. Distinct changes in floor levels subtly define each area, creating separate zones while maintaining an open feel throughout.

The sitting area provides a comfortable place to relax with exposed stonework and a pellet stove creating a cosy focal point during the cooler months. Beyond, the spacious dining area easily accommodates family meals and entertaining, while the fitted kitchen offers solid timber worktops, a range of base units, integrated electric oven, electric hob, dishwasher, sink overlooking the gardens and space for a freestanding fridge freezer.

Also on the ground floor is a generously sized utility room with WC, offering additional storage, laundry facilities and everyday practicality.

Stairs lead to the first-floor landing where exposed roof timbers continue the property's character. There are two generous double bedrooms, both enjoying vaulted ceilings with exposed beams and plenty of natural light, with the master bedroom also having direct access to the balcony. The family shower room has been attractively finished with a modern suite, walk-in shower, wash basin and WC.

Outside, the property continues to impress.

A generous gravelled courtyard provides extensive parking and turning space, while an external staircase leads to the first-floor balcony stretching across the front of the property. This elevated seating area offers an ideal spot for morning coffee or summer evenings overlooking the surrounding gardens.

The gardens wrap around the back of the barn with established trees, mature shrubs and winding pathways creating sheltered seating areas and a pleasant setting around the home.

Beyond the gardens lie approximately 3.9 acres of level pasture, suitable for grazing, recreational use or simply enjoying the surrounding countryside. The land is easily accessible from the yard and offers excellent potential for those wishing to keep animals or pursue a smallholding lifestyle.

One of the standout features is the substantial agricultural building positioned alongside the house. With excellent access, generous internal space and concrete flooring, it offers tremendous flexibility for machinery storage, workshop use, livestock housing or a variety of rural business and agricultural purposes, subject to any necessary consents.

Despite its tucked-away position, the property remains conveniently placed for Newcastle Emlyn, offering a range of independent shops, cafés, supermarkets, schools and everyday amenities. The beautiful Cardigan Bay coastline and beaches of West Wales are also within comfortable driving distance, making this a home that combines countryside living with easy access to the coast.
