Description

Rarely available on the rental market, this large and well-proportioned one-bedroom apartment is offered unfurnished and is finished to a high standard throughout.

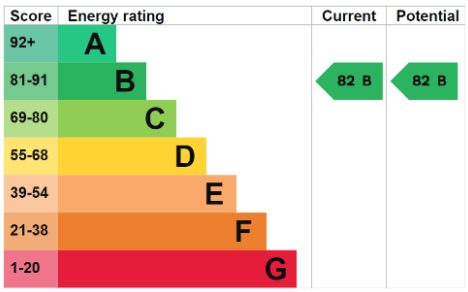

The apartment has a unique layout which is evident in the large and open plan living area. This impressive living space provides separation between social space and kitchen/ dining space and has access to the private communal gardens via patio style doors. The property is complete with a fully fitted dark oak coloured kitchen which houses integrated appliances including a full-size dishwasher and has the luxury of a family sized bathroom.

Riverside Wharf is renowned within the town for its close proximity to all local amenities and mainline rail station which is a short four-minute walk and provides direct services to London Liverpool Street, Cambridge and Stansted Airport.
