

Streatley Road, NW6

Freehold - £1,250,000

A beautiful period house arranged as three self contained flats but sold on one Freehold title offering spacious and versatile accommodation across three floors. CASH BUYERS ONLY.

The property comprises five well-proportioned bedrooms, two generous reception rooms, three fitted kitchens and four bathrooms, providing bright and flexible accommodation throughout. Retaining a wealth of period charm, the house features high ceilings, large bay windows, original character features and well-proportioned rooms, creating a wonderful sense of space. Further benefits include a private rear garden, two roof terraces and a cellar, providing excellent outdoor space and additional storage.

Conveniently situated within easy reach of local amenities, cafés, restaurants and nearby parks, the property is ideally located for Brondesbury Station (Mildmay Line, Zone 2) and Queen's Park Station (Bakerloo Line and Lioness Line, Zone 2), providing excellent transport links into Central London and beyond.
