Sextons Meadows, Bury St. Edmunds IP33 2SB

Guide Price £200,000

Set within a highly sought-after development just a short walk from the town centre, this renovated one-bedroom house offers light and airy accommodation with single garage and off-road parking space. The property further benefits from UPVC double glazing, gas-fired central heating and offered with no onward chain, making it an ideal purchase for a first-time buyer, investor or those seeking the perfect lock-up-and-leave home.

Traditional brick with tiled roof the accommodation in brief comprises a welcoming entrance porch which opens into the bright and comfortable sitting room, decorated in neutral tones and enhanced by newly fitted carpets. A side-aspect window provides natural light, creating a warm and inviting living space opening to the stylish newly fitted kitchen, thoughtfully designed with a range of modern wall and base units complemented by generous work preparation surfaces and tiled splashbacks. Integrated appliances include oven, hob with extractor above, fridge/freezer and dishwasher. Beneath the stairs, a useful storage cupboard doubles as a practical utility area with space/plumbing for a washing machine.

Upstairs, the landing gives access to the generously sized main bedroom, served by a well-appointed bathroom featuring a bath with shower over, concealed cistern WC and vanity hand basin with storage under.

Outside

A pathway leads to the front door through a gravelled front garden bordered by a retaining hedge. To the side is a further enclosed, low-maintenance garden, also laid to gravel and enclosed by wrought iron railings and hedging. Adjacent to the front door is a useful lockable storage cupboard. The property also benefits from a garage with up-and-over door, parking to the front along with additional allocated parking space.

Location
