This substantial property provides fabulous potential for any discerning buyer. The home offers flexible accommodation over two levels which will appeal to many growing families or those looking for the necessary facilities over one level. Set under a multi-pitch roof set to rosemary tiles, the rather handsome external aesthetic is notable for its elegant frontage.

Internally, the property exudes a great deal of traditional charm, with beautifully wood panelling, doors and architraves providing various points of interest throughout the accommodation. Well presented and lovingly maintained over the years, early viewing will be imperative.

Accessed initially via an entrance vestibule, the subjects of the internal accommodation are best summarised as:- Welcoming reception hallway, large bay windowed lounge with feature fireplace as focal point, formal dining room (or additional double bedroom depending upon requirements), luxuriously tiled family shower room – complete with quality three piece suite, thermostatic shower fitting, heated towel rail and vanity storage. The country cottage style, dining kitchen is well equipped with a number of integrated appliances, ample base and wall mounted units and contrasting work surface space. From the kitchen, the utility area offers door access externally. From the large hallway you will find a further reception/family room with French doors into the spacious conservatory. Completing the downstairs are two exceptionally generous double bedroom, one over looking front garden and the other to the rear.

On the upper landing you will find a two generous double bedrooms with fabulous built in storage and an additional shower room. There is a Sauna room(not tested), accessed from the upper landing area and the eave storage is extensive and can be accessed from various points.

In essence a charming family home.

Externally, the property sits upon a sizeable level garden plot which is perhaps best appreciated by first-hand inspection. Established hedging and seasonal trees/bushes offer a colourful definition to the perimeter of the property, whilst good sections of lawn, stone paviours, chips, and flower bedding combine to great effect. The rear of the property is stocked with mature flowering bushes, plants and trees which creates a real sense of peace and privacy and a large patio provides the ideal spot to relax and/or entertain. The sizeable, detached garage is fitted with lighting and also has a work/storage unit to the rear.
