In Detail

A charming two bedroom Victorian cottage positioned on a quiet residential road nearby Biggin Woods and parkland.

This characterful brick-fronted property is arranged over two levels and boasts a 23ft reception room with a newly refurbished original window, a cosy working fire, and calm sage decorative tones. The kitchen offers an abundance of storage and work space, as well as integrated appliances, solid wood countertops, and a Belfast sink. A stable door leads to a handy utility area with the garden beyond. Upstairs there are two bedrooms (the larger with a sunny westerly aspect) and a beautifully finished bathroom with a freestanding claw-foot tub, a heated towel rail, and elegant fittings.

Externally the rear garden has been transformed by the current owners to offer a low maintenance space to relax. A sizeable studio benefits from power and light (plus extra storage space) provides an ideal spot to work or be peacefully creative.

This warm and inviting home is nearby allotments and green spaces, and is primarily served by Norbury rail links. If schools are important then there are popular options at both David Livingstone and Downsview primaries.

This tastefully finished property would suit those seeking a country vibe but with all of the benefits of a London postcode.
