COUNTRY

Sandhurst is a charming and highly regarded rural village situated amidst the beautiful countryside of the Kent and East Sussex border, within the High Weald Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The village retains a strong sense of community and traditional character, with a mixture of period houses, cottages and farmsteads set amongst rolling countryside, ancient woodland and orchards.

At the heart of the village are two attractive village greens, together with a useful range of everyday amenities. These include a village shop and Post Office, petrol station, convenience store and local garage, whilst the village hall, recreation ground and sports facilities provide a range of community and leisure activities. The historic Grade II* listed Church of St Nicholas stands at Sandhurst Cross, occupying an elevated position with far-reaching views across the surrounding Weald.

The surrounding countryside provides excellent opportunities for walking, cycling and enjoying the outdoors, with a network of public footpaths leading through woodland, farmland and the distinctive landscape of the High Weald. The nearby villages of Sissinghurst, Cranbrook, Hawkhurst and Tenterden offer further shops, cafés, restaurants and independent businesses.

Sandhurst is well placed for commuting. Staplehurst railway station, approximately 7 miles away, provides regular direct services to London Charing Cross, with the fastest journeys taking just over an hour. There are also direct services to London Bridge, with journey times of approximately 52 minutes.
