Guide Price - £350,000 Freehold

- Period double fronted cottage
- 3 bedrooms
- Garden
- Further garden and land available by separate negotiation

A character cottage home in a small hamlet that enjoys lovely rural surroundings, moments from the mesmerizing Cornish coastline near St Agnes. Further garden area (guide price £50,000) and 5.8 acres of land (guide price £120,000) are available by separate negotiation.

The Property

A double fronted period cottage that forms one of a terrace of four homes., in an area of outstanding natural beauty. After being held in the current owners family for many years, it is now for sale with vacant possession.

At ground floor there is an entrance porch, dual aspect lounge with open fireplace, dining room with Inglenook fireplace and kitchen. In the rear porch there is a utility room and wc. At first floor there are three generous bedrooms and an impressive bathroom. From the rear windows there are views over farmland towards the nearby sea.

In recent years the cottage has been rewired and new floors with damp proof course and underfloor heating installed downstairs, yet there remains the exciting opportunity to enhance and improve the property creating a personal home.

There is a south facing cottage garden to the front and to the immediate rear is a further level garden abutting farmland. At the end of the terrace is a generous garden area available by separate negotiation and a short way along the road are four grass fields extending to approximately 5.8 acres, also available by separate negotiation.
