Positioned in the sought-after coastal village of Gwbert, this beautifully maintained detached bungalow enjoys stunning sea views, stylish modern accommodation and a fantastic setting close to the coastline of West Wales. The property has clearly been thoughtfully updated over the years, creating a home that feels bright, practical and very well suited to both everyday living and entertaining.

To the front, a resin coated driveway provides parking for around four vehicles and gives access to the attached garage, currently used for storage. Landscaped borders soften the frontage, while pathways lead around both sides of the bungalow and towards the rear garden. Even from the front approach there are glimpses towards the sea, giving an immediate sense of the coastal setting.

The hallway also benefits from loft access, three storage cupboards and a separate airing cupboard, offering excellent practical storage often missing from modern homes.

Details Continued

There are three bedrooms positioned off the hallway. Bedroom three has an attractive archway feature wall adding character to the space, while bedroom two benefits from built-in wardrobes. The main bedroom is particularly generous in size and includes built-in cupboards along with a stylish en-suite wet room fitted with a shower, WC and wash basin.

The heart of the home is the open plan kitchen and dining area, which works exceptionally well as both a social and practical family space. The kitchen has been fitted with granite worktops, ceramic tiled flooring and a comprehensive range of storage units with integrated lighting. Integral appliances are included within the sale, including the fridge freezer, dishwasher, washing machine, tumble dryer and electric range oven with hob. A central island adds additional workspace and storage while also creating a natural divide between the kitchen and dining areas.

From the dining area, sliding doors lead directly into the sun room, which is undoubtedly one of the standout spaces within the property. Designed to make the most of the coastal outlook, the room features dramatic glazed walls and an A-frame style front elevation framing the views beautifully. Natural light fills the room throughout the day, while doors to either side lead directly onto the rear terrace and gardens. The sea views towards Cardigan Bay and the surrounding coastline are a constant feature from this part of the property and give the home a real connection to its surroundings.

The lounge is another excellent reception room, offering plenty of space for seating and centred around a gas fired stove (lpg) creating a warm focal point during the cooler months. Sliding patio doors open directly onto the rear terrace, continuing the strong connection between the indoor and outdoor spaces.

Externally:

Outside, the rear garden has been attractively landscaped and arranged to take full advantage of the views. A raised resin coated patio area with glass balustrades provides an excellent seating and dining space overlooking the garden and coastline beyond. Steps lead down to the lawn and further landscaped sections with gravelled and paved pathways winding through a variety of shrubs, flower borders and established planting. There are also two garden sheds providing useful external storage.

A stylish coastal bungalow in an excellent location with sea views, generous living space and beautifully maintained gardens. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate both the property itself and the lifestyle that comes with this part of Cardigan Bay.
