Period charm meets modern living – fully renovated home near Pittville Park

Tucked away in one of Cheltenham's most desirable locations – just moments from Pittville Park, the Racecourse, and the town centre – 29 Albert Place blends period character with a comprehensive renovation to create a stylish, low-maintenance home.

Behind its elegant façade, this beautiful property has been completely rewired, fitted with a brand-new central heating system, new doors and double-glazed windows throughout, and topped with a new roof – offering long-term peace of mind and energy efficiency rarely found in a period home.

On the ground floor, large windows and high ceilings create a bright, airy feel. The accommodation flows from a separate lounge into a superbly designed kitchen-dining room, featuring modern finishes and a sociable layout – ideal for both entertaining and everyday living.

A cellar provides valuable storage and offers excellent potential for a home office, gym, cinema room, snug, or full conversion (subject to planning).

Upstairs, there are two generous double bedrooms, including a principal suite with its own contemporary en-suite shower room. The main bathroom feels boutique-hotel-worthy, complete with statement tiling and a deep freestanding bath – perfect for evening relaxation.

Every detail has been finished to a high standard, combining classic architecture with contemporary comfort.

Set within easy reach of Cheltenham's most popular green spaces, vibrant local amenities, and excellent transport links, this home offers style, substance, and a superb Cheltenham location
