General Description

Alexanders are privileged with instruction to market arguably one of the rarest period properties in Market Bosworth and the wider area. Rainbow Cottage is a charming, Grade II listed, historical thatched cottage thought to date back to the late 17th century.

Steeped in history, this distinctive property occupies an enviable position in central Market Bosworth, mere moments from the historic square. Boasting a magnificent facade presenting largely brick on stone plinth but with remnants of a timber frame, eyebrow windows and a thatched roof. The rear elevation faces the market square and the front to its' idyllic and whimsical gardens, that have not only been featured in Britain in Bloom, but have also won the Frank Constable trophy for best garden in the East Midlands and the Royal Horticultural Society gold award every year from 2013 to 2023, having not been entered in 2024.

Accommodation

Inside, the property retains much of its' original character, with an abundance of features including exposed beams, fireplaces and oak doors. The accommodation is laid across two floors to comprise; Sitting room, dining room, study, kitchen, double bedroom and shower room all to the ground floor. Upstairs is the principle bedroom with en suite bathroom.

Location

Market Bosworth offers a selection of independent shops, public houses and eateries. There is a farmers' market held every month, recreational and sporting opportunities abound, and a thriving community amongst its' neighbouring villages. The area is well known for its schooling, including The Dixie Grammar School in Market Bosworth, nearby Twycross House School and Repton School, amongst many others.

There is a convenient train service from nearby Nuneaton to London Euston taking from 1 hour and 4 minutes. The property is also well positioned for travelling by car, 12 miles west of Leicester and 7 miles north of Hinckley. The A444 is close by and provides links to the M42.
