Summary

Croftlands is a substantial detached family home dating from the mid 1930's. This beautiful property has been altered and extended by the current owners to now provide comfortable living space. Accommodation includes a sitting room opening to a lovely garden room overlooking the grounds, there is also a formal dining room and large kitchen/breakfast room with access to a comfortable snug. A solid Oak staircase leads the first floor where there are four double bedrooms and family bathroom. The principle bedroom has an en-suite bathroom and French doors to a balcony with views over the gardens. A particular feature of the property are the wonderful landscaped gardens surrounding the house, the grounds extend to over one acre with sweeping lawns, well stocked flower and shrub borders, fruit trees and formal rose garden. A garden loggia can be accessed from the sitting room and opens on to the patio.

Situation and Amenities

The house occupies a private and peaceful position on the edge of the village. Drayton is designated as a conservation area with a fine parish church and public house, The Drayton Crown. The village is mainly made up of period cottages and houses. The nearby village of Curry Rivel is approximately one mile away and offers a good range of village amenities with General Store, Post Office, Petrol Station and Sandpits Heating Centre. There is also the very popular Firehouse village pub and restaurant.
