Brand new, beautifully designed and ready to steal the spotlight! This stunning four bedroom detached family home, currently under construction, offers three floors of fabulous living space, three stylish bathrooms, a private rear garden and driveway parking, all tucked away in a highly sought-after cul-de-sac just off the prestigious Lodge Lane. New home, new beginnings... and absolutely no questionable wallpaper to remove!

There's something rather exciting about a brand new home, isn't there? The fresh interiors, the contemporary design and, best of all, being the very first person to call it yours! Well, this exceptional four bedroom detached residence in the heart of desirable North Grays is shaping up to be something rather special.

Thoughtfully designed with modern family living in mind, this impressive home will offer a fantastic combination of generous proportions, versatile accommodation and stylish contemporary finishes across three spacious floors. Whether you're a growing family, a professional seeking that elusive work-life balance or simply someone who appreciates a little extra room to spread out, this property has your name written all over it!

Step inside and let the house do the talking! An inviting entrance hallway will welcome you into this wonderful home, leading through to what promises to be the ultimate showstopper – the fabulous open-plan lounge, kitchen and dining area.

And when we say fabulous, we mean it! Wonderfully spacious and designed to bring everyone together, this impressive room will be the heart of the home. Picture Sunday morning coffees, family movie marathons, lively dinner parties and those evenings when the takeaway menu wins over cooking. With a stunning contemporary kitchen seamlessly incorporated into the living and dining space, you'll never have to miss out on the conversation while preparing dinner. Multitasking has never looked so stylish!

The ground floor will also boast a generously proportioned and wonderfully versatile fourth bedroom. Need a guest room? Sorted. A playroom? Absolutely. A home office where your biggest commute is from the kettle to your desk? Even better! A beautifully appointed ground floor shower room completes this level, adding another welcome touch of practicality.

Upstairs, the good news just keeps coming! The first floor will accommodate two excellent sized double bedrooms, including a superb principal bedroom complete with its very own stylish en-suite shower room. Because let's be honest, having your own bathroom is one of life's little luxuries, especially when the morning rush begins!

A stunning family bathroom will also feature on this floor, offering contemporary fittings and a beautiful finish. With three bathrooms throughout the property, those early morning queues could finally become a thing of the past!

But wait... there's another floor! Head up to the second floor and you'll discover a fantastic additional double bedroom, offering generous proportions and a wonderful sense of privacy. Whether it's a teenager dreaming of their own space, a luxurious guest retreat or the ultimate hideaway from the hustle and bustle of family life, this versatile room is ready to adapt to whatever life throws your way.

And because a great home should impress on the outside too, this beauty certainly won't disappoint!

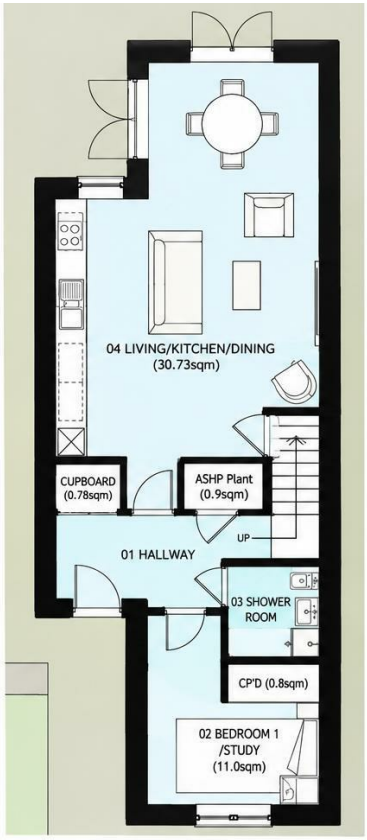

The property will enjoy a lovely sized private rear garden, offering the perfect setting for summer barbecues, alfresco dining, entertaining friends or simply soaking up the sunshine with your favourite drink in hand. There's plenty of potential to create your very own outdoor sanctuary, while driveway parking to the front means you can officially retire from the daily hunt for somewhere to leave the car!

Now, let's talk location... because this one deserves a round of applause!

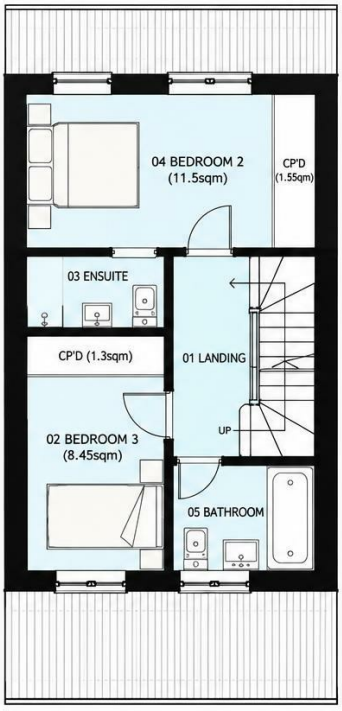

Perfectly positioned within Mead Close, a highly desirable cul-de-sac just off the ever-popular Lodge Lane, this impressive home enjoys a fantastic setting in sought-after North Grays. Offering the appeal of a tucked-away residential location while remaining conveniently placed for local schools, amenities, transport connections and Grays town centre, it's the kind of address that makes everyday family life that little bit easier.

And with the property currently under construction, you'll have the exciting opportunity to watch your future home come to life. Forget inheriting somebody else's decorating decisions – this is your chance for a fresh start in a brand new home!

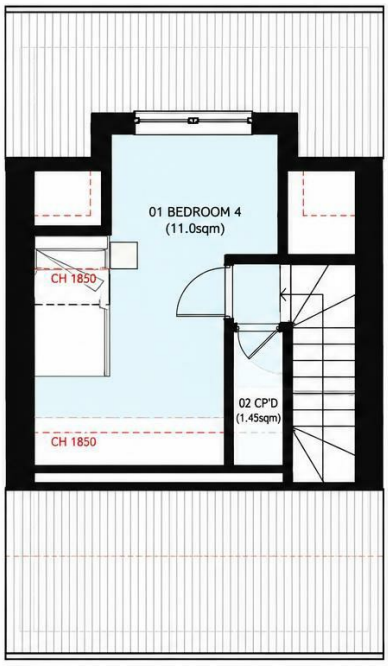

So, what's the verdict? Four fantastic bedrooms, three beautifully appointed bathrooms, a showstopping open-plan living space, three floors of versatile accommodation, a private garden,
