Set on Strode Road, this well-presented two-bedroom ground-floor apartment offers over 600 sq ft of accommodation, a generous private rear garden and a share of freehold. Offered chain free and available immediately, the property combines well-proportioned interiors with the benefit of its own outdoor space.

The accommodation centres around a spacious living and dining room, offering generous proportions and ample space for a separate dining area. A fitted kitchen provides a dedicated space for cooking and storage, while two bedrooms positioned towards the front of the property are served by a family bathroom. The second bedroom also offers flexibility for use as a guest room or home office.

To the rear, a generous garden for the sole use of the apartment provides ample space for outdoor dining, seating and planting. Its size and sole-use arrangement make it a particularly appealing feature of the property.

Well maintained throughout, the apartment offers comfortable living space, a share of freehold and the convenience of a chain-free sale.
