DESCRIPTION

Rarely do you get a true stone bungalow which is situated within such picturesque mature gardens that are truly spectacular and a convenient location close to the popular town of Whaley Bridge which has a historic canal basin, cafes, restaurants, schools, frequent commuter links by both rail and bus and general shops. The homely well presented accommodation which does need some modernisation provides an entrance porch, reception hallway, sitting room which leads into an all year round large Conservatory with heating and overlooking the garden and distant views, fitted dining kitchen, two good sized double bedrooms and a bathroom.

Outside the gardens are wonderful and larger than average and incorporate a summer house/workshop/utility and a gated driveway for several cars and a carport.

LOCATION

Set amid the rolling scenic hills of the beautiful Peak District, Whaley Bridge is an ideal location situated in the picturesque Goyt Valley with close proximity to Toddbrook, Fernilee and Erwood Reservoirs. The Historic canal basin with its transhipment building is located within the heart of the village. There is an excellent array of general day to day shops, cafes and restaurant's. There are two highly regarded Primary Schools within Whaley Bridge/Taxal and a Secondary School located 3.5 miles away. There is a direct bus route to Manchester International Airport and a station with frequent rail links to major towns and cities.
