Halcrow Street, E1

A well presented Victorian house spanning over five floors. The ground floor comprises an open-plan, contemporary kitchen-reception room, which provides access to the private patio situated at the rear of the property, as well as a guest W.C. Located on the first floor, the property has two spacious double bedrooms. Leading up to the second floor, you are met with another double bedroom and the family bathroom, which features dual basins. Moving up to the third floor, you are greeted with the second generous reception with original flooring spanning the full length of the house. This area also leads on to the fourth bedroom, which could also be used as an office space or guest bedroom with eaves storage.

Situated in the heart of Whitechapel, the development benefits from a wide range of transport links, with Whitechapel station just a short walk away, providing access to the Elizabeth Line, District, Hammersmith & City, and London Overground services. The area has an array of popular bars, restaurants and entertainment venues within a short distance in the City and Shoreditch.
