Connaught Road, N4

This charming house is accessed at ground level and immediately welcomes you with a spacious double reception room, complete with period features and elegant double doors separating the two spaces. Continuing along the hallway, you'll find a well-appointed kitchen that opens directly onto a private garden.

On the first floor is the principal bedroom, a second bedroom, and a family bathroom. The second floor offers three additional bedrooms and another bathroom.

The third and final floor features a converted loft, now a generous bedroom with its own en suite bathroom. This level also benefits from excellent storage, with eaves space available on both sides of the room.
