GUIDE PRICE £200,000 - £210,000. Set on a generous corner plot within a well-regarded part of Whiston, Sandringham Avenue offers a practical and well-maintained semi-detached home with the added bonus of no onward chain. The position of the property gives it a larger garden than many others in the area, and the drive to the side provides off-road parking for several vehicles, as well as access to a single detached garage. It's a property that will appeal to a wide range of buyers, from first-timers and downsizers to anyone looking for a move-in-ready home.

The location is a strong point here. Sandringham Avenue sits within easy reach of everyday essentials, schools, and transport links. Whiston village itself has a good range of local shops, a pharmacy, and takeaways, while larger supermarkets such as Morrisons, Lidl, and Aldi are a short drive away. Rotherham town centre, with its full mix of retail, leisure, and transport facilities, is also within easy reach.

For those commuting to Sheffield, Meadowhall, or further afield, the house is well placed. The M1 and M18 motorways are nearby, as is the Sheffield Parkway, offering a direct route into the city. Public transport links are readily available, and Rotherham Central railway station provides regular services across the region.

Inside, the layout is straightforward and easy to manage. Entry is via the side, leading into a hallway with stairs rising to the first floor. The hallway opens directly into the dining kitchen, which is fitted with a range of shaker-style wall and base units, along with space for freestanding appliances. There's plenty of room here for a dining table.

At the front of the house is a bay windowed lounge, which offers a bright and pleasant living space. The focal point is a feature fire surround with electric fire, and the bay window helps to draw in natural light while also giving the room a more spacious feel.

Upstairs, there are two bedrooms – both of which are a good size. The second bedroom includes mirror-fronted wardrobes that help maximise storage while keeping a clean, modern look. The bathroom is fitted with a white three-piece suite including panelled bath, wash basin, and WC. It's well maintained and neutral in style.

The outside space is one of the real benefits of this home. The corner plot allows for a wider lawned frontage, giving the house a more open feel and added privacy. The side drive runs along the full length of the plot and offers plenty of parking space, leading to a single detached garage which is ideal for storage or further use.

To the rear, the garden is enclosed and low maintenance, with artificial lawn, a paved patio area, and a useful garden shed. It's a tidy, private space that suits a range of needs, whether for sitting out, entertaining, or simply relaxing.

The overall condition of the property means it's ready to move into, while the layout and plot size offer scope for future improvements or extensions, subject to planning consent. Being offered with no chain, the process of purchasing is also likely to be more straightforward, making it an appealing option in today's market.
