Golden Hill House , Stourton Caundle DT10 2JW

'Golden Hill House' is a substantial (2640 square feet), FIVE DOUBLE BEDROOM, semi-detached, natural stone, double-fronted period cottage, tucked away in a pretty village centre conservation area address amongst other attractive character homes. The property stands in a spectacular plot and gardens extending to A THIRD OF AN ACRE (0.32 acres approximately) with the rear boasting an easterly aspect. The property benefits from a private driveway providing off road parking for five cars or more (with scope for more and space to add a garage or carport, subject to the necessary planning permission). The property is heated via oil fired radiator central heating and a cast iron log burning stove. It also benefits from double glazing. The cottage is in a conservation area but is enviably free from the restrictions of Grade II listing. The well-arranged accommodation is extensive and flexible, enjoying good levels of natural light via dual and triple aspects. It comprises sitting room, large conservatory / garden room, kitchen / breakfast room, dining room / reception room two, utility room and cloakroom / WC. On the first floor there is a landing area, three double bedrooms, family bathroom and separate shower room. On the second floor, there is a landing area, two further double bedrooms boasting extensive countryside views. This home has had planning permission in the past for a second storey extension at the rear. It offers good scope for further reconfiguration or extension, subject to the necessary planning permission. The property is enviably free from the restrictions of Grade II listing. This rare and unique home has beautiful countryside walks from the front door - ideal as you do not have to put the dogs or the children in the car! It is only a very short walk to the pretty village centre and pub. Stourton Caundle is a particularly pretty, exclusive Dorset village that is full of attractive, character properties. It is only a short drive to Sherborne town centre.
