1, The Meadows is a superior home in a popular village location that currently features spacious, open plan living areas that open onto large private outdoor spaces. The current owner has planning permission to remodel the upper floor to create a further two bedrooms, both ensuite, thus creating a superb five-bedroomed home.

The ground floor layout is remarkable, with large curved, glass windows giving a contemporary feel to the space and showcasing views across the rear garden to the fields beyond. The bright kitchen features a large range cooker and huge central island, perfect for entertaining. The open plan design continues through to the dining and lounge areas, and a separate snug provides a places to cosy up come evening.

The first floor is home to an incredible primary suite, which features a large ensuite with shower and bath and a separate dressing area. From here, step out onto a large terrace with countryside views and a hot tub, a secluded spot for relaxation. There are a further two bedrooms on this floor, one with ensuite, and a family bathroom. Additional access to the terrace is offered from the landing on this floor.

St Merryn is a lively village with several restaurants and pubs, perfectly positioned for reaching the areas famed beaches. Padstow, renowned for its coastal lifestyle and foodie scene is three miles away, and Newquay airport, with national and international links is 7 miles from the property.
