Denise White Estate Agents Comments

An impressive and individually designed four-bedroom semi-detached property, occupying a generous corner plot within the highly regarded and popular residential area of Stockton Brook. Offering spacious and versatile accommodation, excellent outdoor space and the potential for further parking, this unique home is ideally suited to growing families or those seeking flexible multigenerational living.

Approaching the property, a large wooden entrance gate immediately creates a sense of privacy while providing secure access to the generous off-road parking and enclosed plot. The attractive frontage is complemented by a beautiful oak porch, which enhances the property's character and kerb appeal while providing a practical sheltered entrance for boots, coats and everyday family life.

The oak porch opens into a spacious entrance hall, where stylish tiled flooring, stairs rising to the first floor and a feature internal window overlooking the living accommodation create an inviting first impression.

At the rear of the property is a truly impressive open-plan kitchen, dining and living space, designed perfectly for modern family life and entertaining. The stylish Shaker-style kitchen is fitted with quality cabinetry, Quartz worktops, a central island and contemporary pendant lighting. Large bi-fold doors and a substantial glazed lean-to allow an abundance of natural light to flood the space while providing a seamless connection with the garden.

During the warmer months, the bi-fold doors can be opened directly onto the large Indian stone patio, creating an exceptional entertaining area that is equally well suited to family gatherings, summer dining and relaxing with friends.

To the front of the property is a separate and comfortable lounge, featuring French doors overlooking the front aspect together with an attractive feature fireplace. This versatile room also provides access to a useful downstairs shower room and could, subject to individual requirements, be utilised as a fifth bedroom, guest suite or additional reception room.

Completing the ground floor is a practical utility room, housing the property's boiler, together with a separate WC.

To the first floor are four bedrooms, comprising three spacious double bedrooms and a comfortable single bedroom. The double bedrooms are neutrally decorated and enjoy pleasant outlooks, with each benefiting from a stylish contemporary en-suite shower room. The single bedroom also benefits from dual-aspect windows and its own en-suite shower room, making this an exceptionally practical arrangement for family living.

Externally, the property continues to impress. The generous corner plot is approached through the large wooden gate, opening onto a gravel driveway providing parking for at least four vehicles. To the side is a well-maintained lawn garden with attractive, well-stocked borders containing a variety of established perennial planting.

Towards the rear of the garden is a tiered, landscaped gravel area which provides an ideal separate seating or relaxation space. Double gates provide access from the side of the plot onto Nursery Avenue, offering excellent potential for additional parking.

The rear garden features a substantial Indian stone patio, creating an excellent outdoor entertaining space. A large summer house provides a versatile additional room that could be used as a home office, hobby or craft room, studio or simply a peaceful retreat. A further large shed provides useful storage for gardening equipment and tools.

The entire plot is enclosed by mature hedging, creating a private, secure and secluded environment that is particularly well suited to families with children and pets and offers potential for further development (subject to the appropriate permissions).

Overall, this is a truly one-of-a-kind property offering a superb combination of space, flexibility, privacy and versatility. With its impressive open-plan living space, four en-suite bedrooms, adaptable ground-floor accommodation, extensive parking and generous corner plot, this exceptional home is ideally suited to a growing family or those looking for the flexibility required for multigenerational living.
