LOCAL AMENITIES

Hollowell lies some 9.5 miles northwest of Northampton and 12.5 miles South West of Market Harborough with links via the A5199 to the A14 less than 6 miles away and the M1 and M6 at Catthorpe. Hollowell Reservoir sits to the north of the village offering facilities including dinghy sailing, windsurfing, mixed species fishing, rowing and a sailing club. At nearby Guilsborough there is a grocery store, doctor's surgery and very sought after primary and secondary schools.

HOW TO GET THERE

The village can be approached by the A5199 Welford Road. On leaving the Welford Road at Creaton follow the sign posts towards Hollowell and on entering the village on the Creaton Road take the sharp left hand bend and then proceed towards the centre of the village. At the junction of Guilsborough Hill and The Green turn left into The Green which in turn leads into Church Hill and follow the road up the hill where St Brelades stands on the left hand side directly opposite the old Vicarage.
